VOL. VII. NO. 239.

CHICAGO, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1901.

PRICE 5 CENTS

A SENSATIONAL SALE.

There was no array of casual spectators at the dispersal sale of the late Marcus Daly's Apsfeld Stud Tuesday in the Fasig-Tipton paddocks at Sheephead Bay, but the best men in the breeding and racing lines were on hand. They knew what they wanted, for the forty-one head brought $205,100, an average of $5,002.44 per head. An incident so unusual as to be almost a sensation was that Lady Reel, the dam of Hamburg, although 18 years old, was bought by James R. Keene for $11,000, and her daughter, a weanling by England's great sire, St. Simon, was sold to August Belmont for $25,000, another daughter, a yearling, going to W. C. Whitney for $16,000. Auctioneer Easton has knocked out many records with his gavel at thoroughbred sales, but it is doubtful if he has ever sold a dam and her two fillies for such big money at the one sale before.

The sale appealed to both breeders and active turfmen in a striking way, for it afforded to them an opportunity to gain the fruits of one of Marcus Daly's favorite enterprises, and, while lamenting his death, it was only human nature for them to grow keen in bidding. The offerings consisted of a lot of mares chosen with the utmost care in this country and the dams of winners, which have been kept in England to be mated with the greatest sires, and of the produce of these mares. It was a great opportunity for the farms and for the trainers, which the bidding revealed was well appreciated. Twenty mares were sold first, only two being under eight year olds, the lot bringing figures that show at a glance the prosperity of the thoroughbred breeding interests north and south.

A record that runs the Lady Reel and her filly close was reached when August Belmont paid $13,500 for the bay colt by St. Simon—Field Azure, for he had earlier paid $18,500 for the dam, and it was a record inasmuch as the two will hereafter look through their bridles at the Nursery Farm, while Lady Reel and her filly were separated. But the most impressive scene at the sale was when the Lady Reel filly was led into the ring.

James R. Keene opened the bidding with an offer of $5,000. It was only announced to be lost sight of. Bids of $500, $700 and $1,000 came in a shower from all parts of the ring simultaneously and when Easton had matters moving orderly again the $15,000 mark had been passed and John E. Madden, Capt. S. S. Brown, Lucien O. Appleby and August Belmont stood revealed as the opponents for the pretty filly. The bids were then of $2,000 until the $23,000 notch was reached. Now Appleby and Madden shook their heads in response to Easton's suave requests for them to give more, but Captain Brown raised it $1,000. Mr. Belmont made the price an even $25,000 and he gained possession of Lady Reel's youngster.

August Belmont, J. L. McGinnis, bidding for Richard Croker, and William Lakeland, who represented James R. Keene, were the rivals when Lady Reel was sold. Semper Fidele, by Longfellow, fell to W. C. Whitney's bid. J. B. Haggin, through his trainer, J. Joyner, appeared as a contender when the imported mare, Lucy Cross, was sold. J. R. Keene also took a chance on her, but August Belmont obtained the daughter of St. Simon for $17,000. Big as this price was it was beaten shortly afterward, for, after Cambushinnie had been sold to W. C. Whitney for $7,000 and Optime to Mr. Keene for $6,800, the celebrated English mare Field Azure was led into the ring. Once more Captain Brown, August Belmont and James R. Keene were opponents, and it was only a matter of a short time before the price reached $15,000 and then $18,000. Mr. Keene then made it $18,500 and got her.

A few other broodmares were sold and then the two-year-old by Isinglass—Lucy Cross was offered. When the bidding ceased he was L. O. Appleby's for $6,500. Then came the yearlings, and once more the market was brisk with the filly by St. Simon—Lady Reel, a sister to the weanling which sold for $25,000, going for $16,000. She was the fourth one offered, and until $10,000 had been bid it was a tussle between August Belmont and Captain Brown. Then W. C. Whitney joined issue, and he outbid them both, his offer of $16,000 being too much for both of them. Then came the colt by Augustine—L'Esclave. Tom Healey, trainer for R. T. Wilson, Jr., figured in the bidding for a while, but the men chiefly interested were Haggin and Captain Brown, with Haggin the one to end it by bidding $15,500.

This was the last of the big prizes until the weanling colt by St. Simon—Field Azure was sold. John Staples, who came all the way from England to bid on this youngster, was beaten by August Belmont, who secured him for $13,500. Then right after him came the filly, which sold for $25,000.

Although several Englishmen crossed the ocean to bid on the horses offered, J. Robertson of London was the only one lucky enough to get one. He gave $2,600 for the Orme—Cambushinnie colt.

The twelve American mares sold for $33,800, an average of $2,816.67, while the eight English mares went for $58,500, an average of $7,062.50. It was said that James B. Haggin was anxious to purchase Lady Reel, but he did not reach the paddocks until after she was sold. The summary:

STAKES CLOSE TODAY.

Attention of owners who design campaigning in California next winter is again called to the list of stakes lately reopened and which close finally today. These are all to be run off prior to the first of January. The chance to pull off one or more of these valuable events is not one to be neglected, the entrance fees being small in comparison with the sums to be won. Entry blanks will be furnished at this office to any one who may need them, and entries mailed prior to midnight of today will be in time. The stakes are as follows:

The opening Handicap, 3 year-olds and upward, value $1,500, 1 mile.
The Produce Exchange Stakes, 2-year-olds, value $1,500, 3/4 mile.
The Golden Gate Stakes, 3-year-olds and upward, value $1,500, 7/8 mile.
The Crocker Handicap, 2 and 3-year-olds, value $1,500, 6 1/2 furlongs.
The Thanksgiving Handicap, 3-year-olds and upward, value $2,500, 1 1/8 miles.
The Burlingame Selling Stakes, 3-year-olds and upward, value $1,500, 1 1/16 miles.
The Trux. Beale Handicap, 3-year-olds and upward, value $1,500, 1 mile.
The Junior Stakes, 2-year-olds, value $1,500, 7/8 mile.
The Christmas Handicap, 3 year-olds and upward, value $3,000, 1 1/4 miles.
The New Year Handicap, 2-year-olds and upward, value $2,000, 1 mile.

THE WAY TO WORTH.

Horsemen whose horses are now stabled at Hawthorne and Harlem and who will race at Worth have been arranging to move over to that track in numbers, and for the benefit of those who will walk their horses over Secretary Hiller has had a man drive over the different routes from Worth to the other two tracks, and the following route is pronounced the best: Ogden avenue to town of Lyons; from Lyons take Joliet avenue south on Summit road to quarry; pass quarry on Summit road to Archer avenue; south on Archer avenue to second road to left; east on second road to Ninety-fifth street when Worth is then in sight. The distance is about ten miles and the roads are good. Many owners have signified their intentions of walking their horses over, while others will ship over between now and Wednesday.

THE CONQUEROR II. IN FORM.

Harlem's cumbersome card yesterday was run off before one of the largest gatherings of the week. The fields in most cases were decidedly unwieldy, but despite this fact Starter Dwyer got them off promptly and his clever work with the flag was the feature of the day's racing. The main race of the day was the fourth, a dash of one mile for all ages. The victory of The Conqueror II. in this dash about the circle came in the nature of a surprise, as he has not started in a long time, and it was supposed he needed a race or two to put him on edge. Constellator was made an even money favorite, but rewarded the confidence placed in him by his many supporters by finishing a dismal last. The Lady and he ran lapped in the lead for nearly six furlongs, when The Lady drew away, leading by a length well into the stretch. About the last eighth post The Conqueror II. came fast and true and nailed her. She stood the challenge for a few strides and then cried quits. The Conqueror II. then went on and won easily by one and a half lengths from Ben Battle, which came fast in the last sixteenth and beat The Lady three-quarters of a length for second place. Constellator tired and quit badly in the last quarter.

Lord Chesterfield finally awakened to the occasion, and, fencing truly throughout, won the steeplechase without much trouble by five lengths from Saintly, which beat Queenship a neck for second place. In the last sixteenth the last named attempted to get through on the inside rail, but Saintly pinched her sharply off, throwing her off her stride. For this Saintly was promptly disqualified, Queenship being placed second and Corriilo third. Coronatus and Coley ran out of the course during the race and Patron threw his rider over the first jump. The last named ran away three miles before being caught.

Julia Junkin, conceding weight to everything in the fifth race, a dash of five and a half furlongs for two-year-olds, simply played with her field going into the lead easily after the first quarter had been run, and remaining there to the end. She won by three lengths from Hood-wink, which beat Tommy Foster one for second place. The last named ran a much improved race over his last showing. Coacoa ran a disappointing race and it should not be taken seriously. Mollie T. showed speed but could not carry it far. It was a very fast race.

John A. Clarke proved to be the best of a poor lot of youngsters in the day's opener, a dash of five furlongs for two-year-olds. He came with well sustained speed in the last sixteenth and won going away by a length from Our Pride, which beat Lady Bird the same distance for second place. Smith's Reel and Fade Meny ran indifferently.

Mountebank, with Coburn in the saddle, took the second race quite easily. He was held well up to the leader until turning for home, where he was called upon and responded with a rush, coming on and winning by three lengths from Little Lois, which beat Baugh Naugh Gene a head for second place. The Butcher was made the favorite in this race, but was hopelessly beaten off from start to finish.

Erema on the strength of her clever performances in Canada was sprung as a hot thing in the sixth race, a dash of six furlongs. The talent was right in this instance as she simply spreadeagled her field and won in hollow fashion by a length from B. G. Fox, which beat J. H. Barnes four for second place. B. G. Fox finished with a cyclonic rush but had no chance to beat the winner. Lady Idris showed speed for five furlongs but died away when the pinch came.

Steeplechase Jockey Worthington was suspended indefinitely by the Harlem judges for his brutal treatment of Coronatus in the steeplechase.

St. Marcos will start today in the Chicago Stakes in the colors of S. C. Hildreth, having been purchased by him yesterday from B. C. Bunbury.

Sly arrived yesterday morning at Harlem and will start in the Speed Stakes Monday.
Jockeys C. Johnson and J. Johnston were fined $50 each by the Harlem judges for foul riding in yesterday's steeplechase.

A very taking card is provided for this afternoon, the number of good horses named to start giving it a midsummer appearance. The star feature is the Chicago Stakes, a dash of a mile with $2,500 added, penalties and allowances. If all named to start go to the post it will be worth $3,435 to the winner so it can be seen that it is a prize well worth striving for and it promises a sensational contest. A card that embraces the names of such rapid performers as George Arnold, Miss Bennett, Money Muss, St. Marcos, Fancy Wood, Pink Coat, Odnor, Rolling Boer, Headwater, Andes, School for Scandal, Toah, Ed Austin, Nellie Waddell, Magi, Jimenez, Constellator, Henry of Trastamare, Gallantrie, J. V. Kirby, Bessie Spahr, Elsie L., Jack Rattlin, Denman Thompson, Formero, Canova, MacGyle, Rival Dare and Savoy as probable starters in its various races is quite remarkable at this season of the year and in the present condition of the Harlem track it is quite certain that the winners must score fast time.

TWO GRAND SPECIALS. TODAY AT HARLEM

We will put our clients in a way to make plenty of money. We are in on two good things that are to be let down. A ton of money will be bet on this pair by a contingent that never plays dead ones. We are so confident of these horses winning that we advise our clients to make a parlee bet on them. The odds will be 4 to 1 or better. To miss getting these two good things is like throwing money away.

$3.00 Weekly. Wired at 10 a.m.

The American Handicappers, Reynolds & Co.

An unknown, a child boy, riding AMFERAS. How could any one bet when the conditions require a good strong jockey

John A. Clarke, 30-12-5. Lady Bird, 15-6-3.

Play both horses if odds 10 for a good bet each. MOUNTBANK, 10-1, worked 3-4 in 1:15, which means 1:13 in a race. Lord Chesterfield, 4-1; The Lady, The Conqueror II., Hard Knot.

TODAY IN FIRST RACE A 10-1 SHOT.

Beat School for Scandal sure, and the Chicago Stakes winner; guaranteed winner of the handicap, 5 to 1 Miss Bennett presented with third race--no contest--any odds a good one. Last race best thing of the day.

Attention. Randolph street office closed; discharged handicappers. Thirty years ought to have taught me better. Now doing ALL MY OWN WORK.

I WILL PRINT A DOUBLE SHEET FOR RAIN OR SHINE DAILY.

ATTENTION to Out of City Clients—For my 17 uncovered prepared extraordinary specials send your name and address to my office, 176 S. Clark St., and instead of paying me $2.00 bet $1.00 (one dollar) on each wire for me and mail me the winnings of same for each wire.

SPECIAL DAILY CITY SHEETS WITH ALL RACES $1.00.

SIX SPECIALS FOR $10 OR $2 FOR ONE.

Wired to any part of the world. May require two weeks to deliver, as only wire horses of odds—not hot favorites.

Mountebank, 10 to 1, Erema, 4-1, Hard Knot WERE OUR EXTRA SPECIAL ADVERTISED GOOD THINGS FRIDAY. 25 TO 50 TO 1 SHOT.

Today our advertised EXTRA SPECIAL GOOD THING starts. The work of this horse in private has been of the phenomenal order. It has shown no public form whatsoever that would entitle it to consideration. Its winning will prove a great surprise to the public. This horse is entered in an easy field and we are sublimely confident that it will breeze home by itself, therefore we caution you under no circumstances to fail to get this EXTRA SPECIAL GOOD THING. There will also be two other specials on our handicap sheet and the odds on both will range from 3 to 10 to 1. This is DIRECT INSIDE INFORMATION. They also figure to be easy winners. ONE DAY of our valuable inside advice will convince the most skeptical that what we advertise is ABSOLUTELY RELIABLE. Form Letter Handicap on ALL races ready at 9 a.m.

Went to post at 2:00. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. John A. Clarke finished stoutly under a clever ride and was gradually going away at the end. Our Pride ran an excellent race and stood a drive all the way down the stretch. Lady Bird began to tire when the pinch came and had no mishaps. Lawrence M. came with a rush at the end after making up ground in the last quarter. Mary Pine ran fairly well throughout. Fade Meny showed speed to the stretch.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Mountebank was much the best and came away easily when called upon at the last eighth post. Little Lois ran in much improved form and finished fast. Baugh Naugh Gene showed quite a turn of speed but was tiring fast at the end. Loyaletta tired and quit all over in the last fifty yards. Pencil Me showed early speed. Lucille Bramble was right there for five furlongs and then fell away beaten.

Scratched—28592 Hanswurst, 107.
Overweights—Loyaletta, 4 pounds; Pencil Me, 3.

Winner—B. g. by Chesterfield—Tallada.
Went to post at 3:00. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second driving. Lord Chesterfield fenced cleanly throughout and came away easily when Saintly began to tire just after the tenth jump had been taken. The latter was tiring at the end and had all he could do to land in second place. He swerved into Queenship at the last sixteenth post on the inside rail throwing the latter off her stride. He was promptly disqualified for this, Queenship getting second place and Corrillo being placed third. Queenship ran a clever race and finished strongly. Corrillo was never a sharp contender. Coley ran out just before the last jump had been reached. Coronatus ran out of the course just after taking the eighth jump. Patroon threw his rider while taking the first jump.

Scratched—28607 Ponchatula, 125.
Overweights—Saintly, 3 pounds; Lord Chesterfield, 3; Patroon, 1.

Winner—Blk. c. by Sir Dixon—Repeat.
Went to post at 3:30. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second handily. The Conqueror II was fit and ready. He came fast when called upon in the last eighth and was much the best. Ben Battle finished with a rush, but was lucky to get through in the last twenty yards. The Lady had enough when a furlong out. She failed to show that gameness she is known to possess. Constellator was run into exhaustion by The Lady and was beaten home before turning into the stretch.

Winner—B. f. by Likely—Ado.
Went to post at 3:55. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Julia Junkin was much the best and came away easily after the first quarter had been run. She put up a high-class race. Hoodwink, under a weak ride, finished resolutely but had no chance to beat the winner. Tommy Foster improved suddenly and ran an excellent race. He tired slightly at the end. Mollie T. showed speed for half a mile but tired badly when the stretch drive came. Loaco's race was below her form and should be ignored in future calculations.

Winner—B. f. by Tremont—Secret.

Went to post at 4:25. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Erema, off well, simply smothered her field with speed and won as her rider pleased. B. G. Fox finished strongly but had no chance to beat the winner. J. H. Barnes finished resolutely and showed more gameness than usual. He runs best in the mud. Lady Idris had enough when a furlong out. Automator tired rapidly when coming down the last quarter. Al Brown showed early speed. Scratched—22989 Fleetwing, 104.

JOCKEYS HANDICAPPED.

DAILY RACING FORM will from now on publish each week a table of the rating of the jockeys riding at each track based on their performance in the saddle. The best riders at each track will be given the uniform rating of 100, and from that point the others will be graded down according to their estimated relative skill. For a difference of five points between the jockeys a corresponding five points change in the handicap figures assigned the horses in any race must be made. Only riders frequently in the saddle will be given a place in the tables. The following is the rating of the jockeys now riding over the various tracks:

Winner—Ch. f, by Magian—Fonsetta.
Went to post at 2:15. At post 4 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second the same. Musidora was given a lucky start and a perfect ride and ran in markedly improved form. Destitute beat the gate and was extremely lucky to be placed. Octoroon was all but left and shut off twice, losing ten lengths by the mishaps but closed a hopeless gap in the stretch and was much the best. Clipper quit at the end. Ohio Girl made up a lot of ground. Pearl Finder got off badly and was repeatedly interfered with.
Scratched—28097 Tippetoes, 110; 26127 Merry Dawn, 110.
Musidora, show, 6 to 5. Destitute, show, 5 to 1. Octoroon, show, 3 to 5. Pearl Finder, show, 1 to 2.

28650 SECOND RACE—1 1-8 Miles. $1,200 added. All Ages. Handicap.

Winner—Ch. f, by Perlaise—Ondina.
Went to post at 2:45. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second the same. Roxane ran a good race and was lucky and perfectly handled throughout. St. Finnan also received a lucky start and, being carefully saved, benefited at the expense of the pacemakers running at a terrific clip, but was very lucky to beat the badly ridden McAddie, which appeared beaten on the stretch turn and came unexpectedly fast at the end. He was probably the best of the first three and will improve. The Rhymer ran a game race at the weights. The Amazon lost a half dozen lengths by a bad start and could never get up. Herbert was practically left and closed an enormous gap and was much the best.
Scratched—28614 The Puritan, 98.
Overweights—St. Finnan, 1 pound.
Roxane, show, 1 to 2. St. Finnan, show, 2 to 1. McAddie, show, 1 to 3. Herbert, show, 1 to 2.

28651 THIRD RACE—5 1-2 Furlongs. $800 added. 2-year-olds. Handicap.

Winner—B. c, by His Highness—Nettie.
Went to post at 3:15. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Clonmell was lucky throughout. He showed, however, the most speed at all stages and finished game and true. He is probably a good class colt and should improve. Setaket finished strongly under a vigorous ride. Major Daingerfield broke slowly and was compelled to run on the outside of the field, but closed up fast in the stretch. Ben Howard quit in the last furlong. Feme Sole tired and fell back after half the journey had been traversed. King Edward showed early speed. Batyah was outclassed and is only good in mud.
Clonmell, show, 4 to 5. Setaket, show, 3 to 5. Major Daingerfield, show, 3 to 5. Feme Sole, show, 7 to 10.

28652 FOURTH RACE—1 1-16 Miles. $800 added. All Ages. Allowances.

Winner—Ch. g, by Flambeau—Flam.
Went to post at 3:40. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Lombre, a natural stayer, caught the pacemakers tiring in the last furlong and won going away. Peninsula's preliminary was bad. He received a weak appearing ride and his comparatively poor race was foreshadowed in the betting. Gunfire struggled on gamely at the end. Locket and Broadstreet were outclassed.
No show betting on first three.

28653 FIFTH RACE—About 3-4 Mile (165 feet short.) $700 added. 3-year-olds. Maidens. Allowances.

Winner—Ch. f, by Potomac—Caledonia.
Went to post at 4:10. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Scotch Bush displayed much speed and was best today. Lack of condition probably beat Lord Pepper, which was running under a pull to the stretch turn, but failed to stick. He is a good looking colt and can beat this kind. Biff went well. Miss Almy was going strongly at the end. The others are very bad racers.
Scratched—18826 Heathsville, 112; 26170 Johannan Ahearn, 109.
Overweights—Thicket, 3 pounds.
Scotch Bush, show, 1 to 4. Lord Pepper, show, 1 to 2. Biff, show, 8 to 5.

Winner—Ch. c, by Star Ruby—Bedotte.
Went to post at 4:40. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Bedeck in very light was best at the weights. He suffered from a rather bad mix up on the first turn, but clear handling at a critical point enabled him to score. Potente, off badly, closed a big gap and ran a fine race at the weights. Criterion showed unexpectedly fine form at a distance supposed to be against him. He disposed of a fast filly in Templeton and stuck to his work well besides. Himself will win when properly placed especially on a sloppy track. Robs ran well, but was at a disadvantage in the matter of weights. Templeton is a non stayer. Kilogram had no mishaps and stopped almost to a walk in the last quarter. Vitellus was short.

Scratched—28615 Bowen, 104.
Bedeck, show, 8 to 5. Potente, show, 1 to 2. Criterion, show, 6 to 5. Kilogram, show, 1 to 3.
